Tampa now has a board of health in full operation.

Palatka will have a new union depot, to be erected by the A. O. L.

Part of the machinery for the Plant City steam laundry is ready for business.

The poultry and egg business in the vicinity of Longwood is in a flourishing condition.

The city attorney and Manatee paper are called down by an old resident for "padding."

During the past few days upwards of 40 telephones have been put out of business at Pensacola by the electric storm.

A society for the prevention of cruelty to animals is soon to be organized in Manatee county, says The Bradenton Herald.

Frank DeBoy, a Pensacola restaurant clerk, was caught the act of lifting money from the . . . He wanted a raise in salary.

Miss Augusta Chittenden has resigned as city editor of The Tallahassee Daily Capital and Miss Jefferson Bell is again city editor.

J. B. Dinkle's new saw mill at Longwood, Orange county, is expected to be running in a few days. It is located on a body of fine timber.

The young men of Miami are not pleased with the ticket nominated by their elders and they will make a fight in the municipal election.

The Palatka postoffice shows an increase of business sufficient to entitle it to free city delivery, which it is expected will soon be enjoyed.

The Builders' Exchange and the Union men of Jacksonville are liable to have clash. The eight-hour-day will be one of the main difficulties.

The two municipalities of Manatee and Bradentown are favorable for a union of the two places into one, and hope they will find strength in the union.

The coroner's jury in the Pensacola murder case found Williams guilty of murder in the first degree. His second victim, Edward Danby, was reported to be dying Friday morning.

The funeral of John White, the Pensacola merchant shot by an employee, was one of the largest in that city for a long time. All business was suspended during the time of the service.

Tampa, besides running a hotel, will also conduct a first-class vaudeville show at the casino. Races will no doubt be put on the track and the city will do a thriving business the coming winter.

Upwards of a hundred women of Tallahassee called on the Pardon Board Wednesday, in behalf of Walter Taylor, convicted of assaulting Congressman Lamar. Judge Liddon made a forceful plea for the board to not interfere.

"I am moving to Mobile; I can't make a living here," said a Pensacola doctor to The Daily News. But it would be a violation of the code of ethics to publish his name, so you will never know who is gone until you see the card in his office window, "for rent."

The arguments were opened in the supreme court at Tallahassee Wednesday in the case of Caldwell and Larkins vs. the State of Florida. This is the famous Eppes murder case, the details of which are familiar to the people. Itham Edwards, George Caldwell and Nelson Larkins were convicted in the circuit court of Leon county of the murder of County Superintendent-elect K. W. Eppes and sentenced to be hung. A covariance was granted in the trial, Edwards being tried and convicted separately. Caldwell and Larkins' case was then appealed to the supreme court.

Chinese Organizing for Boycott.

Shanghai, July 21.—About 1,500 people, including the heads of all the principal guilds and delegates from many provinces, attended a Chinese mass meeting yesterday which arranged to begin the boycott of American goods tomorrow. It was distinctly announced that the action taken was not against the American government, whose constant kindness was fully recognized, but it was pointed out that unless the Chinese showed themselves to be in earnest they would produce no effect on the California labor unions. There is still much doubt as to whether the boycott will really be maintained.

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 701 West Third St., Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted twelve years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one fifty-cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been growing on me for twelve years. If I had taken it at the start I would have been saved years of suffering." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Gen. Oyama Receiving New Troops.

Russian Headquarters at the Front (location not given) July 21.—The Japanese advance from Korea is taking on a more energetic character and is being pushed to Mousan, Nangan and Kasagawa. The Japanese seem to have received heavy reinforcements from Field Marshal Oyama's main army in front of General Linévitch. A landing of Japanese near Vladivostok would not be surprising and their operations appears to be concentrating in that direction. The Japanese advance in the island of Sakhalin has reached Vladimirovka. The Japanese artillery includes 40 machine guns.

Never Returned from Death Valley.

Goldsfield, Nev., July 21.—John Mullin, E. M. Titus, and Earl Weller, of Telluride, Colo., left Rhyolite on July 10 after a prospecting trip into Death Valley. Today Mullin was brought to Rhyolite half crazed from the terrible suffering he had undergone. He told how Titus and Weller wandered over the desert and in 15 days failed to return. It is believed that they perished. Two horses and 19 burros belonging to the party also met death from thirst.

Rust's Accepts Morocco's Terms.

Paris, July 21.—Russia has given notice of her acceptance of the Morocco conference on the same conditions as Great Britain. A cable dispatch from Tangier July 16 said that the government of Great Britain has accepted the invitation of the sultan of Morocco to attend the international conference on Moroccan reforms, on condition that the program to be discussed by the conference be communicated to it beforehand.

Indian 106 Years Old Murdered.

Everett, Wash., July 21.—The dead body of Doctor Jim, an Indian aged 106 years has been found under the bridge on the Darrington branch of the Northern Pacific, 3 miles from Arlington, Wash., with a bullet hole in the back of the head. The trail indicated that he had been dragged 50 feet from the point on the bank of the Stillagumish, where it is believed he had been sitting when he was shot from behind.
